SHIPMATE '68

Dear Karen
It has been fun knowing you this year even if I never saw you before. I always knew that you came back so I hope that you come back next year and during the summer you can go see some movies and Kathy can go see some movies. O.K. remember the 6th period study hall with Mr. Shanato "it was so bitchen in there when we put glue in the place for cards and he couldn't get it open" Love you come over to visit.

Love Gaylon

Karen having fun in chapel was one of the daily events for I don't know any chapel have fun during the summer Love Joe

Karen Starburg

Karen,

(my dear step mother)
school has been a like a dread mill (?)
going to school with you.
You have such a knack
for closing locker doors!
I shall never forget your bewitching smile (it's more like a witch's smirk!). Our personalities seemed to get along (like oil and water!). I don't know how I could ever get along without your strong encouragement.

(I could have, very well.)
Well I hope you have a wonderful summer (LIE #50)

Love (no),
Yvonne

P.S. OH NO!! ANOTHER YEAR!!

To Butch.
I thought my hair was short. Best of luck to a crazy women. And a stupid historian.

Foreword

LYNWOOD ACADEMY 1968

A year. . . a profile. . . a memory in itself and yet inescapably tied to the past, present, and future. The year 1968 consisted of a mood, an event; a discovery, an insight. The 1968 Shipmate has picked from these moments that which it thinks should be remembered. It has sought out the real and the imagined, the victories and defeats both in the classroom and on the playing fields, and the seeking of individual student. It found a year filled with more victory than defeat.

This is a continuation of my other writing on another page. This will contain shrewd reasoning and the profound wisdom found only within the vast scope of my panoramic sub-consciousness. I find difficulty in expressing the insipidity of such people who torment me in Bible class. This can best be pronounced in the immortal words of Andy Morita who once said, "It is better to keep quiet and let people think you are ignorant, than to open your mouth and make them sure of it." Dressing your limited comprehension, so I must not tax you with too large a dose of brilliant literature at one time.

THE HOSPITAL PEOPLE

What is a hospital? It is people caring for people. Imagine yourself in one now; how important the people are.

Hospitals started out as places of custody and consolation. Not long ago, all that hospital people could do was share your sense of despair.

It is different today. The hospital people know they can help. And your hope has a strength about it that earlier generations never knew.

As more was done in a hospital, it took more people to do it. Now it is going to take more people--all of them better trained than ever before. These people make up the team that stands behind each physician to give the best possible patient care and services. Hospital people do care. The need for people who care has never been greater than it is today.

Hey Boob!
Man I didn't want to sign this now cuz I wanted to think about what I wanted to say. Man We've really had a blast this past year a lot of BIG changes (STEVE) as if you didn't know. I don't know about all we have done. Remember when we have taken place. Bill and our little trips down already know about all we have done. Remember when we went and called Bill and our little trips down to Hawthorne last summer I don't know though about this summer but I'll try to figure something out. By-the-way changes (oops) sence (anyway) I'me leaving Lemwood. Do you remember Halloween and the water fight? (amb) and our poor sore Dingelwood. And all those hard-ways - By any chance you be careful with Steve's house and the Boob you can come over at any-feet running all over Fords we saw. Now time. Good luck with Bill - Twichel-yourself this summer. I fix you blacke eye for me. And give that family I mean. And make the trip you be sure to tres forget it its all GO for Steve and know what I mean. you remember it you wait an see. I fix you forget it make it you tray out of the doghouse we'll make Now tray out of the WOW! of a tweetheart. And we'll see what plans for a WOW! of a summer. And see what we can do with Lemweed.

As always Steve

Dear Karen,

I've really enjoyed knowing you these past three years. You're a very sweet and darling girl.

I'm glad you finally let me cut off your long long hair, that is much cuter now. (my opinion anyway)

Have a lot of fun this summer.. I might even see you once or twice during our vacation.

Be good, and I'll see you next year.

Lovega,

Debby
